There is an army of tramps here who will capture the government as tramps captured France, when they made the streets of her cities run red with the blood of aristocrats and capitalists He then proceeded to denounce the resumptionists advocated the issue of more greenbacks, and said that John Sherman is a fool and a thief who ought, on general principles to be hung Kearney will speak here to morrow night in Monumental square

The Abercorne Mine—No Hope that the Miners are Alive

London, Sept 11 —The loss of life by the colliery disaster is unprecedented There is no hope of securing any more alive as the workings of the mine are very intricate and extend over three miles So far only about seven corpses have been recovered The explosion occurred soon after noon Those on the bank knew it by the rumbling noise and the ascent of vast volumes of dense smoke All the people in that district rushed to the pit mouth in consternation Scenes of distress are indescribable According to the latest advices the pit is still burning, and the managers are discussing the propriety of flooding it as it seems certain all the men are either burned to death or suffocated Flooding will probably be briefly delayed until the last hope is abandoned

Ten more miners badly burned have been rescued. The body of one boy was recovered The fate of the remainder may be judged from the fact that explorers found fourteen dead horses only a few yards from the foot of the shaft. The air in the mine is very impure

London Sept 12 —The Abercorne colliery is the property of the Ebbervale Iron and Coal Co, one of the largest iron and coal properties in South Wales and it is situated a few hundred yards from the Abercorne railway station in the western valley section of the Monmouthshire railway The pit which is 330 yards deep and one of the longest and best worked in the district was yielding 1 000 tons of steam coal daily, and the machinery for winding pumping and ventilation was of the best kind, and the use of safety lamps in the mine was rigidly enforced The cause of the explosion cannot even be surmised Three detonations were successively heard on the surface Frame works and castings of the pit were thrown to the height of 300 feet above the mouth of the shaft The colliery employs upwards of 1,000 hands, of whom 373, taking their turn or shift, went down at 11 o clock yesterday morning Twenty-one of this number came up at noon up to which time nothing had occurred to the create suspicion of danger At ten minutes past twelve a loud rumbling was heard quickly followed by a series of flames from the pit's mouth and a column of smoke and dust and debris ascending high in the air The explosion damaged the winding gear thus destroying the only means of communication with the men in the pit As soon as the gearing could be repaired working parties were sent down into the shaft and 82 men and boys working within a few hundred feet of the shaft were secured, but it became evident as attempts were made to advance into the workings that little hope could be entertained of any life surviving About 400 yards from the bottom of the shaft are stables, and here 14 horses were found dead Beyond this point the explorers could not go on account of the impurity of the air and the prevalence of choke damp Volunteer explorers succeeded in bringing out 10 or 12 men, very much burned also 7 dead bodies But it is feared no others can at present be got at in consequence of the fire extending and there remains no reasonable hope that any further lives will be saved. The whole district of Monmouthshire is much excited and it seemed last night that the entire female portion of the district had gathered about the mouth of the shaft

LEGISLATIVE BUSINESS, PORTLAND CHARTER AMENDMENTS AND BRIDGE BILL THE SENATORIAL ELECTION—FOSSILIZED CANDIDATES — AMUSING INCIDENTS

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT]

The legislative assembly has now got fairly at work and but for the senatorial question there might be very considerable work done before the close of another week Some very important measures have already been introduced but are hardly far enough advanced to indicate the final issue As interesting the people of your city especially are the bills to amend the charter and the [illegible] bridge bill [illegible] The Portland and East Portland bridge bill reads as follows

Section 1 [illegible] The Portland Bridge Company, a corporation duly incorporated under and in conformity with the laws of the state of Oregon or its assigns, and that said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to construct build and maintain, use or cause to be constructed built maintained or used a bridge across the Willamette river between Portland and East Portland in Multnomah county [illegible] for a purpose of travel or commerce Said bridge to be erected at any time within six years after the passage and approval of this act its end point or termination on the banks of said river on and along any of the streets of either of said cities of Portland and East Portland as may be elected or determined [illegible] said corporation or its assigns on or above Oak street of said city of Portland, and [illegible] street of said city of East Portland the same to be deemed a lawful structure Provided that there shall be placed in said bridge a good and sufficient draw of not less than one hundred feet in the clear width of passage way and so constructed as not to injuriously impede and obstruct the free navigation of said river but so as to allow the easy and reasonable passage of vessels through said bridge

Sec 2 The said corporation or its assigns are hereby authorized and empowered to make such rules and regulations for the care maintenance and use of said bridge and the collection of tolls on the travel and commerce on the same as they may deem just and reasonable

Sec 3 That on the filing of the acceptance of the terms of this right by said corporation in the office of the secretary of state signed by its president and attested by its secretary, and the entrance upon construction of said bridge in good faith by said corporation or its assigns, this shall be deemed a vested, granted franchise

Sec 4 All acts or parts of acts either general or special so far as they to any extent conflict with this act are hereby repealed Owing to the great necessity for construction of the aforesaid bridge at the earliest practicable time this act shall be in force from and after its approval by the governor

The bills already before the two houses to amend the code are numerous, and though a great many of them will fail to pass and others will be useless if they should get into the form of law we expect some changes will be made in important respects both in the civil and criminal code. One bill introduced by Bradley of Clackamas proposes the innovation of making the concurrence of three fourths of a jury necessary to agree upon a valid verdict except in criminal cases.

Another bill by Hewitt, of Linn proposes to enact a new law in regard to conveyances of real property It provides that all conveyances of real property within the state to non residents such property at the time of such transfer being in possession of parties claiming title adversely to the grantor shall be void The object of the bill as alleged in section 2, is to prevent the sale of dubious rights to non residents for the purpose of giving the federal courts jurisdiction The measure will probably not pass, as there are enough lawyers in the legislature to prevent it who are too fond of litigation and too well read in the constitution to sanction an act to override the constitution attempt to set aside an act of congress or fly in the face of all legal precedents

The senate has also before it a very large number of bills having passed nearly fifty to their second reading up to adjournment last evening As soon as we can get copies we will furnish the readers with the substance of such as are important to the general public should the indications point to their passage A great many of the bills yet in both houses are local in their character But few calling for the appropriation of money have yet been presented and such will have to be meritorious in character to get through There is less of the granger influence here than there was two years ago but the spirit of retrenchment and reform is quite as strong the principal difficulty being that A always tries to reform B first when reformation, like charity ought to begin at home

The question of who is to be senator is apparently as remote from solution as ever The Democrats have now held one informal, two regular and innumerable side caucuses without coming to any conclusion Slater stock is still firm, but there are many chances that some man not yet nearly so prominent in the fight may come to the front and carry off the honors. The caucus took several ballots last night the result being Slater 15 Strahan 12, Mearthur 8 Chadwick 6 and the rest scattering. It is claimed that three members were absent who would have voted for Strahan had they been present. Another caucus will be held to night at which about the same result seems likely to be reached The large majority which the Democrats have in the legislature has made the election of a member of that party so certain that a good many fossils have come to the surface as candidates Nesmith made the remark yesterday on this subject that if the candidate hunters had gone two spades deeper they would have brought up General Jackson! A very respectable joke under the circumstances

Among the incidents occurring in the crowds which collect about the hotels, one is worth relating, Sweeney who is well known with two members of the lower house went into the dining room at the Chemeketa yesterday morning for breakfast at an early hour and sat down at the table usually occupied by the proprietor and his family. This is furnished rather better than the other tables, the furniture embracing considerable silverware The waiter saw the trio at the table to feed first at Sweeney, then eyed the members right closely and the way that silverware came off that table was astonishing when one reflects how slowly these waiters move on ordinary occasions The laugh from those who witnessed the incident was hearty enough to give them a largely increased appetite for breakfast

A member from Eastern Oregon when ordering his newspapers left an order with the sergeant-at-arms for the Daily Portland Democratic Herald which that paper having been dead about seven years is regarded as evidence that all even of latter day Democrats are not great readers

Last Night's Democratic Caucus.

[BY TELEGRAPH]

Salem, Sept. 13 —The Democratic caucus took seven ballots this evening and the last one stood Slater 13 Strahan 17 Lane 5 Chadwick 5 Smith 3 McArthur 8 and Prim 2 Strahan's vote was expected to increase to 20, but his opponents claim that even that increase would not indicate his success

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 14, 1878.

BUTLER'S PLATFORM.

A new revelation has come to the sons of men. All the experience of the ages in respect to industry, money and values, has been superseded by the light suddenly flashed upon the world by the "National Greenback Labor Party." The highest expression which this new revelation has yet received comes to us through the platform adopted by the Butler convention in Massachusetts. Napoleon said that the French revolution proposed a problem as insoluble as the direction of balloons. But a greater problem is now solved. An inflated paper currency entirely irredeemable, and with nothing to support it, is discovered to be the true foundation of industry, values and prosperity. The accumulated wisdom of mankind, got through long and often bitter experience, is as sounding brass to the zealots who have started up as prophets of a new era. They call themselves "fiatists," and propose to make values depend on legislation. They have discovered the philosopher's stone. It is ascertained that the value of commodities depends not as heretofore supposed on the amount of labor necessary to produce them, but on the action of governments; and they who have received this financial revelation now propose to consign to the limbo of vanity or paradise of fools "the idiotic proposition of making gold and silver the basis of money values." Paper is the thing, not redeemable in gold or silver, or anything else of "shifting value;" but "fiat" is to give it the only absolute and stable value ever known among men.

It cannot be doubted that Butler and Thorman and the rest are getting together a pretty big party. There are enough men who have nothing, and want to get something without working for it, to give them a great many votes. In Massachusetts it is resolved that the paper mill and printing press shall supply everybody with the "absolute" forthwith, and moreover, that "general values shall remain the same." This last is a very thoughtful suggestion. Had it been omitted the venders of beer, when the additional hundreds of millions of the "absolute" shall have been put in circulation, might doubt the goodness of the money and raise the price of brewage on the reformers, which would be manifest oppression. But how are the philosophers going to inflate the currency, declare it redeemable in nothing, and then decree that "values shall remain the same?" Have they any surer plan than that once employed by the grand khan of Tartary who tried to "keep values the same" by cutting off the heads of all who refused to take his "absolute money?" People certainly will not take anything as the equivalent of gold that is not as good as gold, or redeemable in gold. It follows that they certainly will not take the proposed "absolute money" as the equivalent of gold. If that sort of currency be issued in the quantities proposed, it would not only not be protected at par with specie, but it will become utterly worthless, for the reason that nobody will take it in exchange for property. It will be of no use whatever after it has served to repudiate public and private debts for a short time.

But this lunacy which is now abroad will not be argued with at this time, any more than the plague which is now desolating the south. Like other epidemics, however, this one also will be found to have a self-imposed limit of duration. Every general delusion wears itself out, and so will this one. But it will probably first make Butler governor of Massachusetts, and give some other demagogues a boost into seats of honor.

A writer in the Hillsboro Independent, who calls himself "a farmer," in a letter abounding with scurrility towards THE OREGONIAN, asserts among other things that when wheat takes a sudden rise, this paper "is in the habit of saying nothing about it." He adds: "I haven't noticed it this season, but last season for weeks when wheat was at its highest figure we sought your paper to find the price, but you held your peace, letting the speculators have all advantages over us." The writer of the above is both a falsifier and a fool. There has been no time when THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN has not correctly reported the price of wheat and all other products of the country; and the quotations have very seldom failed in any issue of the daily. No newspaper in Oregon except this has regularly taken telegraphic reports of other markets, and no paper has furnished or now furnishes quotations of the markets so faithfully. We cannot but observe that though an occasional individual like the one we are referring to pretends that we do not quote the market high enough, certain buyers in Portland have all along complained that we have been disposed to favor high prices too much. Between these opposing interests and opinions the truth lies, and we give it. There are some small suspicious creatures like the writer in the Hillsboro paper, who, being knaves themselves, imagine that every piece of news which affects their interests is fabricated for some knavish purpose by the editor of the paper in which they see it. This same jackass will probably now imagine that because the harvest news which we have published of late from the eastern states and Europe has not tended much to enhance the price of wheat here, the editor is therefore in league with some vile ring of grain speculators. No suspicion is too absurd for knavish ignorance.

The board of trade of this city propose to send a memorial to the legislature, asking that body to pass an act giving leave to the Northern Pacific railroad company to build its road through the state. We call attention of all concerned to the fact that there is already such an act on the statute book. It may be found on page 101 of the session laws of 1874. The act referred to gives "the consent of the state to the Northern Pacific railroad company to construct its road and telegraph line, or any portions of the same, within the boundaries of this state," and to enjoy within the state the rights and privileges which it may have under its general charter. It also provides that the corporation shall not be assessed for taxation upon its road, right of way or materials used or provided for use in this state, except upon those portions of the road which shall be so far completed as to be thrown open to public use.

Senator Blaine delivered an admirable address at the opening of the Minnesota state fair at Minneapolis the other day. Among other things, he said that the "man who, like the farmer, has to eat his bread in the sweat of his face, is not apt to fall in with the doctrine of the communist, that no one has a right to ownership in the soil; while the man who has the product of his labor in wheat and corn, in pork and in beef—commanding gold and silver, as they always have and always will, in the markets of the world—is not to led astray with theories of fiat paper, and absolute money, but instinctively consigns such wild vagaries to the appropriate domain of fiat folly and absolute nonsense." These are specimens of the address, and they serve to show that it was one of a very instructive and otherwise commendable character.

The organs of demagogy and those orators of labor reform who never do a day's work are asserting that Beecher, in one of his San Francisco lectures, said that "bread and water were good enough for a workingman." What Beecher actually said was that "if bread and water, in any vicissitude of life, was all that fell to man's lot, he ought to take it with contentment." This is a sentiment which asserts the dignity and nobility of man's nature. The mutations of fortune may bring it home to the bonanza prince as well as to the day laborer.

The device of a "letter from Yamhill" in favor of Slater, which the Standard perpetrates, is very thin. How happens it that Yamhill, of all other localities, should take such an interest in the "fourteenth amendment?" That letter never was written in Yamhill, of course. It is a product of Tootsian ingenuity. But Tony, looking at it from his standpoint, is pardonable. If he can get Slater he is assured of having a man in the senate who will be "good to him," and his forecasting intellect looks to the possibilities of 1880.

The New Northwest has closed its seventh volume. It has been carried forward by the joint labors of Mrs. Duniway and Mrs. Coburn, at times amid many difficulties and discouragements; but their energy has so far triumphed that the future of the paper is assured. Its piquant letters and other productions by Mrs. Duniway, and its able discussion of social topics by Mrs. Coburn, cause it to be sought after weekly by a large circle of readers.

In the account of the state land fund as furnished in Gov. Chadwick's message, we find that the disbursements for the last two years have been $26,486 33, and the receipts $13,157 64. That is to say, the disbursements have been more than double the receipts. We are afraid the state's land office business is not very profitable.

Gov. Thayer's inaugural address, we are told, is a sensible and businesslike document. But there is great delay in printing it, and copies are not obtainable.

GOLD BADGE.—A very neat and handsome gold badge, which has been presented to Frank Sprague by the passengers who were on board the north-bound train which came so near meeting with a fearful disaster at Bridge No. 9, on the east side, Sept. 5th, can be seen at the show window of L. C. Henrichsen & Co. The badge is made of gold, about the size of half a dollar. On the little plate to which is attached the pin and from which the badge depends, are inscribed the following words: "Reward for a noble act." On one side of the badge appears the following: "Reward of Merit: Frank Sprague, who, unaided, put out the fire on Bridge No. 9, O. & C. R. R., and flagged an approaching train, Sept. 5, 1878." The following appeared on the opposite side of the badge: "Presented by the passengers as a token of their gratitude for an act of true heroism."

U. S. TROOPS.—Col. Mizner's command arrived at Fort Vancouver Wednesday from the Indian country, and yesterday sailed on the Great Republic for San Francisco. His command consists of five companies—Cos. C and H of the 8th infantry, and H, K and L of the 4th artillery. Following are the officers: Col. Mizner, 8th infantry; 1st Lieut. J. Summerhays, 2d Lieut. N. F. Cunningham (quartermaster), 2d Lieut. J. A. Hutton, all of 8th infantry; Capt. T. G. Smith, Capt. John Egan, 1st Lieut. S. R. Jones, 2d Lieut. — Gordon, 2d Lieut. Wm. Medcalf (adjutant), 1st Lieut. Chas. Totten, 1st Lieut. H. R. Anderson (formerly of Gen. Canby's staff), all of the 4th artillery. Dr. A. C. Smith, surgeon attending the command, also left with the troops. The command numbers 150 men.

NEW GAS WORKS PROPOSED.—Mr. J. H. Bracken arrived here on the steamer Ancon from San Francisco, and is at present sojourning in Portland. He is largely interested in the gas works at San Jose, California, which city enjoys the reputation of being one of the best illuminated places on the coast. Mr. Bracken's object in visiting Portland is to procure a franchise to erect gas works and to use the streets in laying mains. Should he obtain what is desirable it is his purpose to build works and to furnish a very superior article of gas at greatly reduced rates. When everything is in good running order Mr. Bracken proposes to furnish gas at the low rate of $3 75 per M.

DR. BRENAN'S LECTURE.—Last evening Dr. Paul M. Brenan delivered the first lecture of his course at Oro Fino Hall. The doctor's subject was "The laws of health, or, how to live and what to live for." The large hall was filled to overflowing, and the eloquent and logical lecture was listened to throughout with the closest attention, as it was a most worthy effort, morally and intellectually. This (Saturday) evening Dr. Brenan will lecture at Oro Fino Hall. His subject will be "Manhood." The lecture will be delivered to gentlemen only.

COPYING THE ASSESSMENT ROLL.—Messrs. P. Lessard, W. S. James and L. Zechiel, Jr., assisted by Mr. Charles Schramm, who acts as teller, are engaged at the court house in making copies of the assessment roll of this county—one for the sheriff, another for the clerk, and a copy to be filed in the office of the secretary of state at Salem. These gentlemen were chosen for the service because of the rare beauty and legibility of their penmanship. The work was commenced on Thursday, and will be completed in about ten days.

REACHED THE SUMMIT.—Last Friday a party of five persons from Mt. Tabor, consisting of Frank Morgan, Frank Gilham, M. C. Gilham, O. Hosford and E. Frances made the attempt to ascend Mt. Hood. As it was so late in the season it was almost impossible to reach the top, which only two succeeded in doing, viz: Morgan and Hosford. The only record of anybody being on the summit this year were the names of G. W. Lampson, G. P. Haynes, H. P. Burger and S. H. Dorris, who went up Sept. 3d.

LOSSES BY FIRE.—The following are some of the losses sustained by the fire on the Washougal: Johnson's house, the Tinsley place, all the fencing and 4,000 rails; the Daisy shed, his fencing, wagon and plow; Bannington's crop, fence and shed; Fletcher suffered a heavy loss in rails. At Parker's landing Wilsey's shed and season's hay, worth $300, were destroyed, and the stock range, the best in the county, is all burnt up. The fire is checked in places.

"GLAD TO HEAR IT."—The Astoria paper says: "It was reported that four steamboats were pulling away at the Bankfields at one time, but Capt. M. M. Gilman, the pilot who took her up, says he got through without lightering, and that he could have taken three feet more draft by working the tides. The vessel drew 18 feet three inches. Three feet more would give Portland 21.3. Good for Portland. We are glad to hear it."

PORTLAND SEAMEN'S FRIEND SOCIETY.—The next regular meeting of this society will be held on board the ship City of Glasgow on the 15th inst., at 2 P. M. The entrance is from the lower wharf, foot of D street. A cordial invitation is extended to all seamen and others connected with and interested in our shipping.

WEEKLY OREGONIAN.—This week's edition is made unusually valuable and interesting by reason of containing the governor's message, full legislative and telegraphic reports, general miscellany, etc., etc. The paper is the best issued for a long time, and should be mailed to eastern friends. Don't fail to get a copy, which is put up in wrappers for mailing.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The contract for the improvement of Front and North Front streets was let Thursday by the committee on streets and public property, at an average figure of 38 cents per foot for crosswalk; 47½ cents per foot for sidewalk, and $1 72 per cubic yard of macadam.

YELLOW FEVER FUND.—Up to date the following total collections have been made by the relief committee:

First district	$3,591 50
Second district	910 00
Third district	287 50
Total	$4,789 00

TO OPEN THIS EVENING.—The Columbia saloon, on First street, between Yamhill and Taylor, will be opened this evening. Free lunch will be served. J. V. Wangenheim, the proprietor, invites his friends and the public generally to call and spend the evening.

BURNED TO DEATH.—We understand that a German named Hoffman was burned to death Thursday, on Lewis river. He was fighting fire which was burning in the woods when his pants and his clothes caught. No further particulars could be learned.

DIED.—In Astoria, on the 12th inst., Martin Henry, son of P. J. and Catherine Goodman. The funeral will take place to-day at 2 o'clock from the residence of Josiah Low, on D and Park streets. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

BACK AGAIN.—John Maguire returned last evening from a trip to Victoria and other points in British Columbia. He is in excellent health and spirits. Genial John's many friends will be glad to see him again.

MESSAGES.—The following messages remain uncalled for at the Western Union Telegraph office: J. Knowland, F. Fisher, James Taylor, Tung Yeon Chung Sung, E Brant, M. Whitney.

FOR THE FAIR.—Lachapelle, the boat-builder, is building an elegant light scull for exhibition at the mechanics' fair to be held in this city.

CAPTURE OF WILSON.

The San Francisco Chronicle of the 10th says:

John Wilson was arrested yesterday afternoon by ex-Sheriff Harry Morse and one of his detectives, Libbing, assisted by Captain Stone, on suspicion of being James Johnson, who with Archie Brown on the 20th ultimo shot and killed a youth named Louis Joseph in the streets of Portland after robbing the pawnbroker shop of O'Shea. Wilson answers very closely to the published description of Johnson, whom Harry Morse has been looking after sharply, being five feet five inches high, straight dark brown hair, rather short, dark brown eyes, rather sallow complexion, a little hump-shouldered, smooth-faced, about 24 years of age. At the time of his arrest he wore new No. 7½ buckled shoe-ties, white Canton flannel undershirt, breast in shape of a shield, bound with blue, dark pants, red binding around the waist, and on the fingers of his left hand are imitation rings tattooed in India ink, all of which corresponds faithfully with the description. He says he was in Portland the day after the murder, but did not remain there long, fearing the authorities might suspect him of the deed. When Wilson was brought into the city prison it was discovered that he was a fugitive convict from the Oregon penitentiary, having escaped from there some time during last May. He was sent there for one year for horse stealing, and had served but a few months of his sentence when he escaped. He had previously served a five years' term in the same institution for robbery. The authorities here feel satisfied that he is the right person and have telegraphed to Portland his capture, asking that an officer be sent here for him.

Since the above was in type we learn that Wilson had only three months more to serve in the penitentiary of this state. Such being the case, Gov. Thayer has declined to send for Wilson, on the ground that the short period of his unexpired term will not justify the necessary expense to be incurred in bringing the prisoner to this state. One hundred dollars will be required to bring him here, and he will of course be discharged from custody.

GENEROUS DONATIONS.

The following telegram will require no explanation:

WALLULA, W. T., Sept. 13, 1878.

The subscription paper to be circulated for the relief of the southern sufferers from yellow fever among the employes of the O. S. N. Co. on the middle and upper Columbia reached this place this morning by steamer Faxon, and from the gentlemanly purser, Mr. W. T. Stephens, we learn the amounts given by the several boats and stations on the river: Wide West $56 58; Mountain Queen, $37 25; Celilo, $12 50; Faxon, $58 50; Spokane, $33 60; total, $198 23. The largest amount given by any one employe was $10, given by Wm. Doran, engineer Mountain Queen. All the captains, agents, pilots and pursers are down for $5 each, and the deck hands have all done nobly. Among the conspicuous donations is $1 from Jack, the Chinaman cook on the Spokane, over whom the killing of Pat Wheaton by Capt. Baughman took place. The steamer Faxon is so far ahead, giving $2 50 more than any other boat, although the steamer Almota and Wallula, Umatilla and Dalles agencies are to hear from. The Spokane, with her small crew, deserves special mention for the liberal amount she succeeded in raising.

BRIEF NOTES.

Strong indications of rain.

The ship City of Glasgow is loading grain for Europe at the foot of B street.

One of the street sprinklers came suddenly to grief yesterday afternoon at the corner of Front and Stark streets. A broken axletree was the cause of the tribulation.

The old American Exchange Hotel building is being fitted up for a hotel. Its new location is Front between Madison and Jefferson. A new wharf has just been constructed back of it.

James G. Fairfowl, Jr., arrived at San Francisco last Wednesday from New York, and will be a passenger for Portland on the next steamer. The young man has been absent over eight months "doing" England and France.

MILITARY NOTES.

First Lieutenant Ebenezer W. Stone, 21st infantry, now on detached service at Portland, Oregon, will proceed without delay to Fort Townsend, W. T., and report for duty to the commanding officer of that post.

Upon recommendation of commanding officer of the post, based upon their uniform good conduct while serving out their sentences, the unexpired portion of the period of confinement in the cases of military convicts Hugh Duignan and John J. Hall—proceedings promulgated in general orders No. 23, department of the Columbia, series of 1876—is remitted.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

I have received this day from Ed. F. Albright, secretary of the Oregon Transfer Company, $102, contributed by the employes of said company for the relief of yellow fever sufferers; also $2 sent by J. R. Ellison, of Yoncalla, Oregon.

WESLEY JACKSON,
Chairman Relief Committee.

Portland, Sept. 13, 1878.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Ike Blum knows the value of printers' ink, and that is why he advertises.

If one should look through the Willamette Stove Works they would certainly say that it is one of the institutions that should be supported. They turn out good work, as their increasing business would indicate. We shall speak further of the works at another time.

OPEN TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.

The meetings of the Open Temperance Society at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association every Saturday evening still attract large audiences, which are always deeply interested in the exercises. The meeting on last Saturday evening was of an unusually interesting character. An excellent address was delivered by Rev. Mr. Griffin, of Hillsboro. The poem entitled "The Polish Boy," was declaimed by Miss Coburn in a manner that roused the large audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm. A temperance song entitled "Look Not upon the Wine," was splendidly sung by a quartette of excellent artists. Brief and excellent addresses were also delivered by O. P. Mason, Esq., Mrs. A. J. Duniway and Mrs. White, and a large number signed the pledge. At the meeting this evening an address will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Cruzan, reading by Miss Dora McCord. Splendid temperance songs will be sung by good singers. Murphy cards will be gratuitously circulated. Strangers, citizens and all are cordially invited.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MARKET THEATER.—The entertainment volunteered by the dramatic people of Portland for the benefit of the sufferers by yellow fever in the south will occur this evening at the New Market Theater. The object is certainly most deserving. By dispatches which appear in the OREGONIAN and others which have been published before it will be seen that the plague is constantly increasing and that aid is sadly needed. To the many who are unwilling to give by the more ostentatious method of subscription, the small amount which their circumstances will allow, this occasion will be hailed with pleasure. The performance gives promise of being of much more than ordinary excellence. Nearly all of the dramatic people of the city will take part, and the intrinsic merit of the entertainment will amply compensate for the price of admission. Go to the theater to-night and spend the evening pleasantly, and at the same time do a charitable deed.

PERSONAL.

Mr. B. Coffey, the energetic and efficient carrier of THE OREGONIAN at Salem, came down yesterday on business. He returns to his home this morning.

Gen. Howard, accompanied by his staff, arrived at Fort Vancouver Thursday from Priest's rapids where he went some days ago to hold a conference with Chief Moses.

The Palouse Gazette of Sept. 6th says: "Rev. H. W. Stratton stopped in Colfax last Sabbath while on his way to Spokane falls to visit his son-in-law J. J. Browne, Esq. He conducted divine services in the morning and evening at this place. His able and interesting discourses were highly appreciated, and the people of Colfax hope Rev. Stratton will favor them with another visit."

POLICE COURT NOTES.

Frank Boyle, assault and battery, fined $50, committed to the county jail for 25 days; Thomas J O'Kane, drunk and disorderly, $10, unpaid; Paul Hammel, same offense, $10, unpaid; A. Beason, same offense, $5, unpaid; John Doe, drunk, $5 paid; M. J. Black, drunk, $15, unpaid; Anderson, same offense, $10, paid; J Murphy, same offense, $5, unpaid; J. Hughes, same offense, $5, paid.

Messrs. Wm. Pfunder & Co. manufacturers of the Oregon Blood Purifier, have reason to feel proud, from the fact of having already exceeded the sales of any medicine ever manufactured in Oregon. The huge stack of cases we saw in front of their establishment the other day for shipment to all parts of Oregon is sufficient evidence that their labors are appreciated and their medicine found beneficial. Mr. Harry J. McCormick, the manager, is partly to blame for this big business. Harry is a hard worker, and never forgets that there is such a thing as printers' ink.

AUCTION SALES.—This morning at 10 o'clock Messrs. Creighton & Stearns will sell all the furniture contained in the house on the corner of Seventh and Stark streets, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon they will hold their regular semi-weekly sale of horses, buggies, etc., at the Dexter, stables, corner of Second and Washington streets.

Mr. Ackerman has just returned from San Francisco with new goods. Go to Ackerman Bros'.

Fall suits—just the thing—just opened by Ackerman Bros. Call.

LESSONS IN MUSIC.

MISS M. E. TEST is organizing a Class in Piano Music and will give lessons either at her residence or the homes of pupils. She will take students in any stage of advancement. Beginners will be taught the science and art of music thoroughly and well. Lessons given as often as desired, and at the uniform rate of 75 cents each. Address box 497

INSTRUMENTAL CULTURE.

WILLIAM PFUNDER & CO.,

WHO SHALL BE SENATOR?

PORTLAND, Sept. 13, 1878.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

It is within your knowledge that the writer of this communication has been a lifelong and unswerving Democrat. You are asked to insert this article in your paper for the reason that the Democratic paper of this city has now become the avowed advocate of the election of Mr. Slater to the senatorship. We propose briefly to consider what a senator from Oregon at the present day should be, and then see if Mr. Slater possesses the necessary qualifications. We believe that Oregon is among the very fairest and most highly endowed of the sisterhood of states. We think that her undeveloped resources of agricultural land, prairie and foot hill, water power, timber and river transportation in connection with her equable climate, will some day enable her to assert herself as the peer of any of the states. We are yet in extreme youth and far from the center of population and the source from which assistance and support is rendered. As in man's infancy and helpless youth he needs the fostering hand of nurse and parent, so our young state now needs the legitimate and proper aid of the general government to remove obstructions in her water courses, improve her harbors, and yield her railroad facilities. Our infant state is like a young Hercules, struggling in his cradle. These are some of our local needs. In national matters we want a senator who by his past career has given proof of the "faith that is in him." We want no trimmer like Lord Halifax, whose refined olfactories have only served him heretofore in scenting the coming change in the political breeze, to take advantage of it for his own benefit.

We ought to have a senator who knows familiarly and in detail the wants of every section of our state, one who has the ability, force and will to make himself heard and his requests granted. We do not expect to send a Webster, but there is quite a margin between the powers of the aforesaid Daniel and the gentlemen mentioned for the senatorship. In addition to the proper requirements as a debator on the floor of the senate, we need a senator who has at least the polite and general education of a gentleman, for it is a fact well known in Washington that more can be done out of the senate chamber than in it by a representative having personal attraction, and conversational powers and who uses those gifts in season and out of season to achieve his object. The dinner table and the drawing room enter largely into the influence of a politician at the capital. We are not saying that this is right; we only say that it is so, and the man who goes to Washington expecting to overpower and carry the senate by a burst of eloquence that would appal a country justice of the peace and then go home to a second class boarding house, will come out where Jonah would have come out had he had a box of Brandreth's pills in his pocket—at the little end of the horn.

We do not want to be disgraced as a people by sending an inferior man as senator. Our people have intelligence, cultivation and refinement, and we do not want the people of the east to say if this man of decided mediocrity is picked out of all Oregon to wear the robe of senator what must be the mental condition of the rank and file.

As the paper which professes to be the organ of the entire Democracy has singled out a candidate whose cause to espouse, we would simply ask, Has he the requirements necessary, or any of them?

Eastern Oregon has no warmer friend than the writer of this. No one has a larger conception of her future or a better appreciation of what is due her as sustaining the Democratic banner. But we do not think that she should claim the senator, unless she has a candidate who would be a credit to the whole state. Nor do we believe that any one section of the state can be benefitted at the expense of the other. It is the old story of Æsop, "If the belly receives food it sends health and strength to all the limbs." And whilst we are on the subject of physiology, there is another member of the human body, the great toe—which is among the most insignificant, yet always put forward—to which member in our mental abstractions we sometimes liken the Hon. James H. Slater.

Dr. Mintie's Vegetable Nephreticum.

Does it cure all? No! It is intended for diseases of the Kidney and Bladder. This great Tonic supplies a want long felt by a certain class of sufferers, and is taking a high rank among remedial agents in this country. First. Because it is made SPECIALLY for kidney and bladder complaints, the different ingredients of which it is composed acting conjointly upon the muscular and mucous coats of these organs. Second. The combination is the result of large experience and careful study, both of the organs and their diseases. Third. The best materials (which are purely vegetable) are selected and used in its manufacture. In acute inflammation of the Kidneys or Bladder, pain or heaviness in the back and loins, with drowsiness and feeling of languor the NEPHRETICUM will give immediate relief, and a free use a perfect cure, by strictly following directions. Price $1.25.

Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills.

Do they cure everything? No. They are intended for diseases that result from malarial poison and a deranged liver. Symptoms of a disordered liver—dull pain in the side and shoulders, loss of appetite coated tongue, costive bowels, sick headache, drowsiness, weight in the stomach, often acting with acidity and belching up of wind, low spirits, loss of energy, unsociability, and forebodings of evil. Delay is dangerous. Many of the leading citizens of Portland, from experience will vouch as to the superior virtue and value of these two specialties. Price 25 cents per box. To be obtained of all druggists.

Dr. La Mar's Seminal Pills cure all cases of Seminal Weakness, Loss of Vigor, Nocturnal Emissions, Impotency. Nervous and Physical Debility, and all that class of complaints arising from Excess, Indiscretion or Abuse. The old find in this remedy A FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH, and the young a safeguard and protection. DR. LA MAR'S SEMINAL PILLS restore the Sexual Organs, debilitated from whatever cause, to their pristine vigor. Price, $1 50 per bottle. Sent C. O. D. by express to any address secure from observation. Address all orders to A. McBOYLE & CO., Druggists, P. O. Box 1,952, San Francisco.

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

When the Lips of Beauty

Are parted in a smile, they disclose a row of pearls rivalling in purity those which the diver brings up from the bottom of the Persian Sea. What will best preserve these gems of the mouth? SOZODONT, the celebrated beautifier and preservative of the teeth.

How many hard-worked individuals in all our great cities are bemoaning their poverty, which prevents their finding the relief that change of place and circumstance, and, above all, rest, so frequently affords. A large majority of mankind are deprived of this means of recuperating their exhausted energies. But "there's a balm in Gilead." Frese's Hamburg Tea gives vigor to the vital forces, promotes digestion and gives tone to the system. Try it.

FIRE, WATER AND FROST PROOF

ARTIFICIAL STONE!

THE UNDERSIGNED PROPRIETOR OF THIS valuable patent on the Pacific Coast is now prepared to execute all orders for laying Sidewalks, Garden Walks, Carriage Drives, Corridors, Office Floors, Cellar Floors, Stable Floors, Kitchen Floors, etc. The stone is laid in squares, ovals, rounds, diamonds or any other requisite shape, to conform to any form of surface, level, curved or depressed. It is also made in any color or variety of colors, and is as durable and ornamental as marble; is perfectly fire, water and frost proof, while nothing is more economical.

Reference is confidently made by the undersigned to the work done several years ago on the elegant premises of W. C. Talbot, Esq., for Jackson st., and more recently on the magnificent premises of J. B. Hagin, Esq. Taylor street, San Francisco, from whom we have testimonials of satisfaction; also the work lately done in this city for E Green, Esq., Judge Harmon, and Mr. Grayson, on Jackson street, A. K. P. Harmon and W. E. Miller, Esqs., Webster street, and Mr. Ward on Lake street.

Orders may be left at the office of DILG BROS. Front street two doors south of Oak

Letter from Rev. John McMurray.

I cannot but regard the discovery of Fellows' Hypophosphites as a matter of devout thankfulness to a benign Providence.

I have used it myself and also recommend it to others and invariably found it to be of essential benefit

In bronchial and other chest affections, in arresting incipient consumption and in lessening the distressing symptoms of this disease in its hopeless stages, as well as in cases of nervous debility, in giving tone to the system, it is undoubtedly a valuable remedy

J McMURRAY
Newport, N S Methodist Minister

The St. John Telegraph says The invention of Fellows Hypophosphites has become one of the valuable industries of the country unique of its kind, and a credit to the Dominion of Canada.

Power of Speaking Restored.

NEWARK Out. D C March 30 1870

Two months ago my son lost his voice. None of the physicians could do him any good I obtained a bottle of Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and strange to say my son's voice was restored two hours after taking the second dose
